

BUSINESS PROCESSES

Focus on business growth; reduce cost & optimise efficacy

Outsourcing your business processes can significantly reduce costs and improve your business performance. Without a clearly defined plan that aligns with your strategic goals, outsourcing the central nervous system of your company can prove costly and disruptive.

We provide a spectrum of business process consulting (BPC) services that help clients create the framework and priorities for improving operational efficiency and effectiveness.

Powermatla ICT business process consulting services enable clients to:

- Reduce the time, money and resources spent by formulating a comprehensive strategy and plan
- Gain access to proven business management consulting tools and the latest innovations in business development consulting
- Optimise current and future technology investments to improve business performance.

Industries:

- Banking, Financial Services & Insurance
- Retail, CPG & Manufacturing
- Healthcare Life Sciences & Services
- Global Media & Telecommunications
- Energy, Natural Resources & Utilities
- Travel, Transportation & Hospitality

Through our business process consultancy, clients can gain the greatest business value and return on their investments whilst reducing the risks of outsourcing.

Our Business Processes services consist of:

- Business process improvements – we ensure process flows are up to date and are scaled to match the growth of client's businesses and to gain control of strategic functions
- Enterprise application selection – after analysing clients infrastructure and business requirements, we make solution recommendations and create an implementation roadmap to fit our client's business agendas. We also manage the implementation of clients solution, integrating end-to-end business applications and auditing of the status and efficacy of clients existing enterprise systems
- Outsourcing recommendations – from total cost of outsourcing to vendor selection to risk assessment, we have expertise in evaluating outsourcing opportunities, as well as the expected returns and pitfalls of the outsourcing process
- Establishment of offshore strategy – we help you design clients offshore strategy taking into account cultural compatibility, infrastructure, skills and expertise, maturity of the delivery model, overall outsourcing costs and data/IP protection.
